By all our Accounts from the Northern Colonies, the past has been, by 7 or 8 degrees, the coldest Winter they have felt: Many Vessels have been lost on their Coasts, a great Number blown off, and on board several all the People were frozen to Death.

From the Musquito-Shore, by a Vessel which arrived here on Saturday, we are informed, that the Spanish Cruizers in the Windward-Passage still continue their insolent Searches and Seizures of our Ships; that they have, not long since, taken upwards of 20,000 Dollars, out of a Ship from Jamaica, commanded by one Sutcliffe, that was carrying home the Officers of his Majesty's Ship Fox; that they have taken a Snow from Jamaica, commanded by Capt. Braddock; and that the two Gallies, which have, for a long Time past, been constantly employed in annoying and taking our Trade to the Bay of Honduras, were cast away, near the Bay, about the 20th of February.

At the Court of General Sessions, &c. begun and holden on the 18th ult. the following Persons were convicted, *viz.
